Claims to Scotch, Irish and English descents. Relations back to theMacKenzie River in the Northwest Territories, Canada, near Ft.Providence and YellowKnife. From this website(http://www.ssimicro.com/ftpages/ftprov.html) it states: The originalFort Providence was established near the mouth of Yellowknife Bay inthe country of the Yellowknife Chipewyan tribe, shortly afterAlexander Mackenzie visited the area in 1789. However, this post wasabandoned about the time of Franklin's expedition to the Coppermine inabout 1820.

A roman Catholic mission was established at the present site of FortProvidence in 1861 by

Monsignor Grandin, OMI, and named Notre Dame de la Providence. TheHudson's Bay

Company founded a trading post at the site soon afterward. These twoinstitutions attracted Dene to the community.

The construction of a highway to Yellowknife with a ferry crossing atFort Providence brought change to the traditional trapping community in the 1960s. Ina move back to traditional ways, 60 people spent the winter of 1981 at Willow Lakeand Tathlina Lake outpost camps. These camps have continued to be used and two moreoutpost camps were constructed at Mud Bay and Axe Point. The population of FortProvidence today is about 750 residents.

JOHN BEEBE

It is known that John Beebe was one of the early settlers in the northern part of Warren, believed to have been about 1840. He operated a store and grist mill near the intersection of Chicago Road and Mound, and he became prominent enough to warrant the village that grew up there to be called "Beebe's Corner." He won election to the newly formed Township of Warren in 1850 and then was re-elected to four successive terms. The family remained in the area and was in civic and political events through the 1860s.

george bolam of warren during the mid 1800's is my great-great-great grandfather. however i notice that there are several georges listed. could you clear this mystery for me? do you have any information regarding the george bolam that was born in england in 1805 and died in warren (his farm) in 1869. he was married to susan and had several children (8).
thank you, nancy
"bob & nancy" <rnelston@greatlakes.net>
i love history especially regarding my own family. i have been searching for any information regarding the george bolam family. my information is limited and gleaned from ancestory.com and family search.org. the rest is verbal, hand-me-down lore. my george bolam was born in northumberland, england in (about) 1805. i don't know when he immigrated to america however i know his children were born in michigan. he married susan coods who was from france. his children include in order: george,

thomas, susan (my great-great grandmother who married charles zoep, then after he died antoine peltier), robert, abby, anna and rosanna.he farmed in warren with his sons. he died 12-22-1869. most of the information from the 'warren history' lists george bolam however i think at that time in history, there were 3 including (my) george, his son, and another george bolam that may have been a cousin or close relative. i don't know how to sort out who is who. it can be frustrating. i feel like an obsessive slueth-but i don't tire. thanking you in advance for any information, nancy

Francis David PETERS Sex: M
Birth: 01 Apr. 1918 in Detroit, Michigan
Death: 24 Jun. 1959 in Warren, Michigan
AKA: "Fritz" In 1942 "Fritz" married his childhood sweetheart, "Toni" Wiegand. She was suffering from a cold the night of their wedding and succumbed to pneumonia one month later. Fritz was devastated by her death. He not only blamed himself for her death, but his in-laws also blamed him for their daughter's death. Unable to deal with the death of his wife, he turned to alcohol. He remarried briefly and was separated from his 2nd wife, when he was killed instantly in an automobile accident.
He is buried in Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Detroit, Michigan next to his first wife and first sweetheart, "Toni."

Grama was known for her apple pies, her homemade bread and ALWAYS had a cookie jar full for her grandchildren. In fact her great-grandchildren still remember to her as "Cookie Grama." She also made quilts and braided rugs from scratch. At Christmas everyone who entered her home got a present fom her grab bag. This included the mailman, milkman, even the paper boys.
We were all blest to have known her.
